Mr. Duval, that Walkie-talkie you use on hall duty looks suspiciously like a radio.

Mrs. Buxton receives a cup of punch from Mrs. Harry L. Brown at the teachers' tea sponsored by the Madison Women's Club.

Mrs. Finks, the answer can't be 98346-10!

Exhausted teachers relax at noon, and discuss the morning's happenings.

Mrs. Broyles completes another imaginative and thought-provoking bulletin board.

Senior People

This is a scene from "Not my Cup of Tea," a one act play which was presented before the student body. Here is Woodi Witherow wielding the rolling pin and Mary Margaret Tourond watching the demonstration.

To a P.T.A. group, Joe Goodall, the school's representative to the annual Boy's State meeting held at Williamsburg, gives an account of his experiences during his stay there.

In the second year French Class, Cynthia Lamb and Woodi Witherow are joining others of the class in singing the French National Anthem. Linda Lohr is leading the anthem singers.

Margaret Weakley and Daisy Rider decorate the school's traditional Christmas tree. This year's tree decoration is sponsored by the S.C.A.

Eilene Lillard, captain of the Varsity Basketball team and high scorer for the season, and Brenda Sparks, one of the guards, hold the trophy which was awarded the players for the honor of having an undefeated record this year.

Mary Margaret Tourond, PATCHWORK business manager, sells the last of one hundred copies of PATCHWORK to Brenda Sparks.

Two editions of PATCHWORK, the first M. C. H. S. literary magazine, were published this year by the Creative Writing Class. The magazine included poetry, short stories, and essays written by students, and featured one outside author. The PATCHWORK staff also sponsored a school literary contest, with the winners' entries being published in the magazine.

M.C.H.S. District Champions

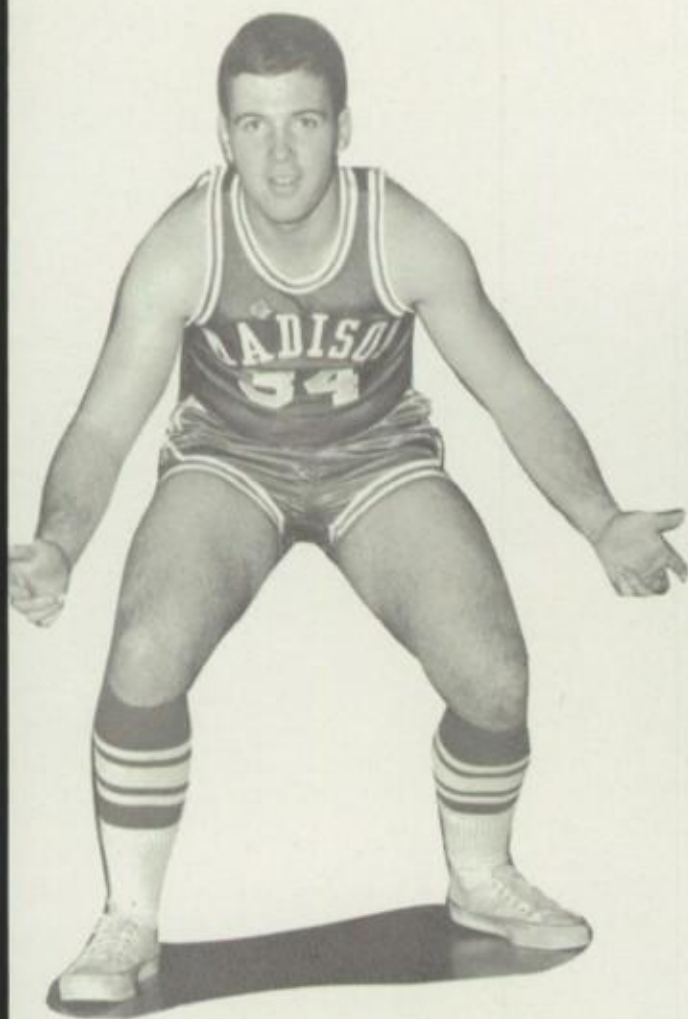

Billy Tanner and Robbie Vass tense in preparation to grab the ball for a rebound.

The Madison County Varsity Basketball Team won the District II, Group 2 Championship on February 19 by defeating Midlothian High School, 79-77. This homegame put Madison into the running for the District Tournament Championship to be decided at Midlothian February 24-26.

The Championship game was hard-fought, the score see-sawing between the two teams into the final minutes of the game. By scoring an outstanding 37 points in one game, Mark Borders pushed Madison ahead of Midlothian for a two-point win. 1966 marks the second consecutive year the Madison Varsity has won the District Championship.

Ray Racer leaps for the ball as Donnie Gallihugh stands ready to help.

Enthusiastic Madison fans swarm onto the court as the final buzzer signals a Madison victory.

Boys' Junior Varsity Basketball
